WRITER'S WORKSHOP

Writing Application 1.1

This exercise calls for students to write an introductory letter to you. It should be modelled on the letter shown on page 32 of the textbook. This is a good opportunity for you to learn about your students and to assess their writing skills as well as their proficiency in grammar, usage, and punctuation.

Professor Margaret M. Sullivan
Department of Business Administration
Schoolcraft College
Vancouver, BC V6B 5H6

Dear Professor Sullivan:

I enrolledⁱⁿ this class to help me improve the way I use language. I know that communication skills are important, and I'm afraid that my present skills are below average. They're not good enough for me to get the kind of job I want. I also enrolled in this class because it's required in my program of study.

Accounting is my major. I chose this field because I like working with figures. And because I know that many good jobs are available in accounting. Although I thought that accountants worked totally with figures. My adviser tells me that accountants also need to be able to explain their work to management, to fellow employees, and to clients. My language skills are not terrific, and I want to improve. When I finish my accounting program, I hope to get a job in the entertainment industry as a Junior Accountant.

I have a part time job at Pizza Bob's. Where I deliver pizzas to campus dormitories or to apartments and homes. I like my job because I get to meet people and because it helps me pay for my car and its insurance.

When I'm not studying or working, I like to surf the internet. My favourite places to visit are websites devoted to unusual hobbies and businesses. Right now I'm interested in "CyberSlice," a site showing the menus of participating pizzerias in a neighbourhood. Maybe I can get Pizza Bob to participate!

Sincerely,

Mark Avila
